

Billsboro Winery and Bank of the Finger Lakes. A relationship you can bank on.

Kim & Vinny Aliperti, owners of Billsboro Winery with Jim Willson, Chief Credit Officer, Bank of the Finger Lakes

“At Billsboro Winery we focus on small scale production, allowing us to devote more attention to providing a high quality product and tasting experience for our customers. This is why we love Bank of the Finger Lakes. They are a smaller, local bank that has the ability to devote personal time and attention to our business banking needs.”
